To be released to public at end of April

SPLENDOUR IN THE GRASS ANNOUNCE LINEUP

One of Australia's premiere festivals is set to be bigger and better than ever this year – peek below for the lineup of acts you'll be seeing when Splendour in the Grass returns to Belongil Fields in Byron Bay on the 25th and 26th of July, and stay tuned for info on sideshows around the country.

Representing somewhat of a UK indie invasion this year, it will see the arrival of Irish shoegazers My Bloody Valentine to the festival stage as well as a very special reunion from Indie-Pop pioneers The Smiths. Other UK comers will include The Shins, Aphex Twin, The Klaxons, Maximo Park, These New Puritans.

Not to be outdone there will also be a strong showing of American bands, lead by 90s cult favourites Dinosaur Jnr. They will take the stage side by side with countrymen The Flaming Lips, Bad Brains, Interpol, The Postal Service, The Faint, Animal Collective, Fucked Up.

Canadian outfit Godspeed You! Black Emperor will play their first shows in over 5 years, a special treat for Aussie punters. Continuing the Canadian trend, Black Mountain will hit Australian shores for the first time.

The local contingent ain't too shabby either: The Death Set will be touching back down in the country especially for the festival, penultimate Aussie group Powderfinger will also be there while Van She will be playing a rare live show.
